Notts branch puts on major event for International Day of People with Disabilities!

Come and celebrate with us!

Come and celebrate the International Day of People with Disablities

Thursday 1st December
6.00pm - 9.00pm
Antenna, Beck Street,
Nottingham NG1 1EQ

Notts UNISON and Nottinghamshire County Council Disabled Employees Support Network (DESN) have organised a major event in Nottingham as part of the celebration for the UN International Day of Persons with Disabilities.

BOOK YOUR FREE TICKETS HERE

Major Debate on Disability and multimedia presentations throughout the evening.

Special guest speakers include Rio Paralympics gold medalist athlete Sophie Hahn and swimmer James Crisp. The event will be opened by the Leader of the County Council, Alan Rhodes.

There will be a free buffet and we want to encourage everyone to attend, this is a real celebration in an informal and relaxed atmosphere, it's about making everyone aware, not just those already dealing with a disabling society.

Do yourself a favour and come along to an amazing evening!

Book your free tickets now via Eventbrite
For anyone attending that has access needs / dietary requirements please contact the branch office on
